Working groups

Each working group will be held concurrently throughout the day in both English and French. Delegates will also be encouraged to create their own working groups.

1. How should we celebrate Canada Day?
2. How can we take this celebration to the world?
3. What major events can we create to mark this milestone?
4. How will different levels of government work together?
5. What are the infrastructure legacies we want to build?
6. How will citizens become engaged and exercise ownership for this celebration?
7. What are the attributes of a strong Sesquicentennial brand?
8. What policies and legislation do we need to make 2017 a success?
9. What are the unifying themes that will make the Sesquicentennial relevant to Canadians?
10. What are the legacies, programs or tributes we can create to mark this year?
11. How can we encourage business and non-profits to play a leadership role?
12. How can the arts create meaning and energize the Sesquicentennial?
13. What are the success factors that will make 2017 memorable to all Canadians?
14. How do we move this forward and create a sense of urgency and momentum?
15. What are the principles and values we'd like to see organizers of 2017 activities adopt?
